

Know This Hear This

'Know This Hear This' - A.A.Owen's new album - is Peacework's Spotlight album for June.

A.A.Owen's important new album has been chosen as the Peacework Music spotlight CD for June. In fact, A.A.Owen presently has two albums featured on Peacework's home page - the first artist to do so.

Jeff Peace, boss of Peacework, had this to say about the album:

"Stunningly rich and beautiful soft jazz/new age music is the backdrop for this disturbing and eloquent report on the atrocities of which man is not only capable of, but is guilty of and continues to be guilty of ... even in this enlightened age of scientific marvels."
